Product Discontinuance

Dear Valued Customers and Business Partners,

This letter serves as notification that StepTechnica Co., Ltd. has decided to discontinue the manufacturing of specific part number offerings from our IC products.

Affected products have been manufactured for two decades and counting at our contract sites of Panasonic Semiconductor Solutions Co., Ltd..

A planned closure of these sites until March 2022 have been determined due to aging of equipment, material EOL, and emerging risks in the supply chain.

For this reason, affected products will be End-of-Sale after supplying necessary and sufficient quantity to each customer.

Please be informed that you need to notice your required quantity via our distributor until Last Time Buy date shown below.

Thank you for your partnership, your business, and the opportunity to serve you.

Yours truly,

1. Affected products

MKY33, MKY34, MKY35, MKY40

2. End-of-Sale / End-of-Life Schedule
